

Hometown Inner-City Missions

Grand Opening May 2009

Future Site of Hidden Treasures

WHY?

1. To provide low cost quality goods to the Peninsula's most needy.
2. An opportunity for suburban and urban church ministry partnership
3. To provide employment to adults from our target community
4. To provide at-risk youth entrepreneurship

"This will be a practical way for suburban churches to get involved with the needs of the inner city." Tom Kenney, Pastor Peninsula Community Chapel

HOW? Three ways YOU can participate:

1. Donate unwanted Quality Goods (women & children clothing, shoes & accessories; & small items)
2. Volunteer (renovations, operations, administration, training, or mentoring) & invest in the life of the underserved
3. Give Financial Gifts

visit us @ www.obthr.org

Or Call us @ 757-244-0700

WHAT! Operation Breaking Through (OBT) is opening an urban missions thrift store "Hidden Treasures" in the heart of East End Newport News!

WHO? OBT is a Christian nonprofit ministry facilitating area Churches in serving the low income communities of Hampton Roads.

You can sow your seed for this harvest of hope and empowerment through your local church to OBT or you can give by direct mail

*"A new hope is born in the southeast community of Newport News!"
Kenneth McDade, Pastor Rhema II Christian Center*

Benefits of this project:

- ✓ Affordable Quality Goods For The Needy
- ✓ Urban Missions Volunteer Opportunities
- ✓ Multicultural Church Coalition
- ✓ Employment /Biz Training Opportunities
- ✓ On Site Evangelism & Ministry
- ✓ At-Risk Youth Entrepreneurship /Mentoring
- ✓ Increase Self-Esteem of Patrons

*"Great opportunity for youth to see themselves as future business owners!"
Raymond Johnson Sr., Pastor Emeritus Calvary Revival Church Peninsula*

FUTURE CEOs and Business Owners of Hampton Roads

"A solid investment in the future of the Southeast Community of Newport News!" Greg Garrett, Greg Garrett Realty

Hidden Treasures

Fashions & More

Be A Part of the Vision!

